For the prevention and cure o
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of person can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

RAN AWAY from Peter Graham, living near Middleburg, Loudoun county, Va. on the night of the 25th of March last, a very likely Negro girl, named ANN, purchased of Wm. Noland, living at Aldie, Loudoun county, whose family she was raised in. She is of a yellow complexion, round faced, thick lips, with large staring eyes, and rather delicate featured for a slave;—small feet, a tolerable ready speech, and mild with it; about 18 years of age, middle size, and very well made; rather thick, about 5 feet high from appearance. She had on when she went away a dress of coating cloth, made in a coat and jacket, with skirts of a brown snuff color. I have reason to believe she is in or near Philadelphia or New-York. I will give fifty dollars reward if taken in Fauquier, Loudoun, Prince William, or Fairfax counties, or the District of Columbia, if taken in any other county or state, and secured in any jail, so that I obtain information and get her, I will give one hundred dollars, and all reasonable charges paid in either case, if brought home.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND DAILY ADVERTISER.

PUBLISHED BY SAMUEL SNOWDEN,
ROYAL-STREET.

Daily Gazette $7 ...Country Gazette $5.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1818.

Mr. Snowden,

I very sincerely reciprocate the favorable sentiments which your correspondent, who subscribes himself "An Alexandrian," is pleased to express for me,...and feeling an assurance, independently of that which his signature implies, that the end we have in view is the same—the good of the town—I should have rejoiced, sir, if by correcting an error into which I might very naturally have fallen, he had succeeded in convincing me and the public, that there was no grounds for the apprehension I expressed, that the directors of Banks would render the India voyage unpopular, by commencing a system of retrenchment and curtail, simultaneously with the commencement of that operation. If your correspondent will repernse my remarks, he will find that he has misquoted me in saying that I imputed to directors a "design" to render the enterprise unpopular. I should have done violence to the sentiments I entertain for a great majority of those gentlemen, by imputing to them any "design" incompatible with what they conceived to be the interest of their respective institutions and of the town. I should also have been pleased if he had accounted for the resolution to withhold discounts, in a way more consistent with that elevated ground, that solidity, and dignified independence of exterior circumstances of ordinary importance, which the Banks of Alexandria have a right to assume and the ability to maintain.

To attempt to discuss the merits of the general system, if any there be, pursued by our Banks, would be opening a wider field than I have time or disposition to enter upon. I will merely remark that I have in my recollection an institution* which for a series of years (in which are included the eventful period of the late war) has never known any material variation in the amount of its business loans, and has at the same time, by the wise, liberal and uniform policy of its direction and ministerial agents, sustained its credit and respectability abroad, promoted the interests of its stockholders, and elicited from its customers the expression of their grateful sense of the uniformity and liberality of its course: and although he who prophesies good for Alexandria, will not be credited, though he were to produce proofs of inspiration...yet I will venture to assume it as a principle incontestible, that Alexandria, by a proper concert in its measures, a proper union of its capital and resources, and a proper direction of its energies, possesses the means of uniformly and amply supplying all the reasonable demands of its traders;—and if this result is not constantly produced, we may search with certainty of success for the cause, in the want of some one of these prerequisites.

That the storm which your correspondent sees with such alarm lowering in the west, is to burst upon us with such awful force, I cannot believe: on the contrary, I feel a confident hope that it will be dissipated by a shower as mild and as little to be deprecated as those peculiar to the auspicious season with which it commences its course. The influence which this District will possess in the councils of the Bank of the Valley, from its interest in its capital, together with the strong disposition which is known to exist in that quarter of the state to foster the interests of Alexandria, will render the call on it for specie to supply its demands, as light as possible; and the heavy claims which that section of the country holds on Baltimore (where its weight will not be regarded), will all be realized for this emergency—and I think I am safe in asserting that our Banks have it now in their power to procure a sufficient amount of northern funds to meet the demand which Baltimore may make to supply the deficiency thus created.

With regard to the second remark of mine, on which your correspondent animadverts, I will merely observe that I agree with him entirely as to the fact that the Banks of Alexandria supplied a large portion of the specie necessary...and I believe he will as readily admit that it was owing, in a considerable degree, to the recuperative effect of the policy I condemned, and not voluntarily and in the first instance. From the standing of the gentlemen interested, in the community, as well as their particular relation to the Banks, I was warranted in supposing that they acted with a perfect understanding of each other's views; and they no doubt had the choice in what part of the District the "facilities" they received should be payable—which being the case, my original proposition stands unhurt.

Believing as I do, however, in the sincerity of the disposition of the directors (and particularly the officers) of our Banks to render their institutions safe, respectable and useful, it will ever be a source of gratification to me to see them favoring and the favorites of the community, with which their interest and prosperity are identified.

MERCATOR.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Friday, February 20, 1818.

The uniform bankruptcy bill was yesterday again agitated in the house of representatives, in a committee of the whole, Mr. Livermore in the chair. There was some very able speaking in the course of the day. Mr. Mills first entered the lists, and encountered with great force the objections raised to the principle of the bill, and demonstrated them to be founded in a misconception of its objects, and a want of sufficient attention to the first clause, in which not a syllable was to be found to justify the imputations which had been thrown upon it. Of this speech I may say, as I did yesterday of Mr. Sergeant's, that nothing less than the whole of it could convey an adequate conception of its merit. Mr. Tucker, for whose purity of heart and soundness of intellect I entertain a very high respect, spoke against the bill for some time, with an earnestness which must, I think, to every one who knows him, be a pledge of his sincerity—and was answered by Mr. Storrs, with such plain, vigorous, masculine force of reasoning, and such a clear developement of irresistible truths, that I could not help wondering at the power of habit in diverting from the straight path, the reasoning process even of superior minds and dispositions, on particular subjects, by which that adversary of the bill had been deluded into so manifest a misunderstanding of its contents, its principle, and its objects. Mr. Storrs' speech was not long—(perhaps little more than half an hour)—but it would not be easy to find many speeches of twice its length into which so much sound sense, and so much ingenious argument, were compressed. Mr. Williams of Conn. followed on the same side, and although he had to go over a field which had already been gleaned by many able hands, found means to add considerably to the mass of reasoning which I would fain persuade myself cannot fail to be successful, and to force itself through the obstructions thrown in its way by prejudice.

The committee obtained leave to sit again.

The weather at the south has been extremely inclement. Snow fell at Petersburg (Va.) on the 30th and 31st ultimo, at an average depth of 18 inches.

A petition is before the legislature of Pennsylvania, praying that militia trainings may be abolished during peace, and a special poll tax of one dollar be laid, to constitute a military fund.

A corn sheller has been invented in Pennsylvania, with which two persons can shell a bushel of corn in 4 minutes.

The Berkshire Society for promoting Agriculture and Manufactures, have offered, among others, premiums for the best stud horses, for the best mules, the best tanned hog skins, the best apple orchard, the best maple orchard, the best maple sugar, the best cheese, and the best arranged and best cultivated farm. The next exhibition is to take place on the first Wednesday and Thursday of October.

Some persons who died of typhus fever have been opened by the medical gentlemen of Newry. Water was found in their heads. The head of one contained a pint of water. In another about an once was found. Dr. Mills, of Dublin, has opened a number of patients who died with this disease, in whose heads were considerable quantities of water.—There is a manifest determination of blood to the head in the present fatal disease, and, therefore, it might be advisable to open the temple artery or jugular vein in many cases.

Directions to be observed by vessels making for the Inlets (Schæren) on the coast of Gottenburg, and the quarantine ground of Kanso, viz: A round flat tower is erected on Great Kanso, fifteen ells in height, the upper part of which is built of red brick, without plastering, having a white streak round the top. This tower, which, owing to its elevated situation, may be seen from sea at the same distance as Wingo Beacon, bears S. 71 degrees E. from Wingo, N. 20 degrees W. from Tisfarne, and S. 71 degrees E. by the compass from the arm of Baskan.—On entering, it should be observed, that after having passed south of Wingo, the course should be steered straight for Kanso tower, until the vessel shall have reached north of Kanso Fjaerskaer, which bears west of Kanso, and is indicated by the stone reef; the channel between Kanso and Wargohalar-hamu is then seen open south of the tower; and north of the same opens the channel to the quarantine ground, running close to the north and north west shore of Kanso.

THE FISHERIES.

It will be recollected that a mercantile company, in this town, associated in the winter of 816—17, and agreed to employ a fund of $30,000 for the purpose of carrying on extensively the bank fishery. The past season was the commencement of their efforts; and although they have labored under all the disadvantages of (to them) a new experiment, have built and fitted their vessels; and although the last has been considered rather a poor year for taking fish, yet we are happy to state, that after paying the interest of the fund, the nett profits on hand are estimated at about twelve per cent. making the income for the year past eighteen per cent. on the capital employed.

We believe it is not expected the privilege of fishing at the Labrador will be obtained the ensuing season.

New York, Feb. 16.

FROM SCOTLAND.

By the ship Thomas, Wilson, from Port Glasgow, we have received from our correspondent a regular file of Greenock and Glasgow papers, from which we shall make extracts hereafter.

The ship Independence, Thomas, arrived at Greenock in 30 days from New-York, encountered a number of violent gales, in one of which they lost the jolly boat, and were obliged to stave all the water casks on deck. On approaching the coast of Ireland, discovered about Arranmore, about 3 o'clock in the morning, a false light, which was taken to be that of Instruhull, and under that impression run for it, and were close in before the mistake was discovered.

New-York, Feb. 17.

Capt. Hitchcock, of the schr Nassau, came up from the Hook in a pilot boat last evening, and brought his letter bag. The Nassau is 18 days from Mobile, with a cargo of cotton and hides. The sloop Nancy, which had just arrived at Mobile from N. Orleans, had been robbed by a privateer of 150 dollars in cash, and the clothing of passengers and crew. The privateer shewed no colors. One of her officers, a lieutenant, was recognised by the people of the Nancy. He belongs to Groton, Connecticut—his name is believed to be Fowler.

INDIAN WARFARE.

We learn by Captain H. that considerable alarm existed among the inhabitants of the town of Blakely, on account of the reported movements of the hostile Indians. Thirty warriors had crossed the Perdido, and were said to be on their way to the town of Blakely: they had reached the cowpens, killing many cattle and committing other depredations. The inhabitants of Blakely were under arms.

On Saturday last, off Barnegat, Capt. Hitchcock spoke the ship Washington, 54 days from London, with passengers, for New-York. Same day spoke the brig Wilson from Charleston for N. York—Capt. Wilson saw them about 10 miles astern when he reached the Hook; but from the heavy gale, must have been blown off.

To the politeness of Capt. H. we are indebted for a file of the Mobile Gazette to the 27th Jan. inclusive. In the latest, a meeting of the inhabitants of the town of Mobile was called on business relating to the safety of the town from the attacks of the savages.

Mobile January 15.

Arrived, sloop Yankee, Summers, having on board the property saved from the brig Ann, Peter A. Hallman, master, from Wilmington, which was shipwrecked on Mobile bar on the 2d inst. Capt. Hallman returns his grateful thanks to Captain Joseph Mudge, of the brig Cincinnatus, who by his humane exertions assisted in saving the passengers and crew of the said brig—as, also, to the commanding officer of Fort Boyer, Lieut. Beal, for his polite and benevolent attention to the passengers and himself during their stay at Mobile Point. The passengers, Messrs. Winship and Robertson, with their families, and Mr. T. Howard, all from Wilmington, also return their warmest acknowledgments to the same officers, and thus anxiously lay before the public so meritorious acts.

Boston, Feb. 12.

A DARING ROBBER CONVICTED.

On Saturday last William Ryan was sentenced by the municipal court to 90 days imprisonment, and 3 years hard labor in the state's prison. About four years ago he was sentenced by the same court to the same prison for life for burglary. After being there about 2 years, he was pardoned out, as he was under age, and as it was hoped that this offence might have been his first one. He then returned to New-York, his native place, and had not been seen in this town until the 9th of January last, when constable Reed was informed that Ryan had offered for sale some gold watches and seals, which were supposed to be stolen. He was taken before justice Whiting; and an advertisement appeared from Mr. Thomas, of Virginia, that his store had been broken, and that five thousand dollars worth of watches and jewelry had been stolen.

The watches and seals found on Ryan compared exactly with those described in the advertisement; and, on searching his lodgings, two thousand dollars worth of like articles were there found, and on Saturday last identified in court by Mr. Thomas, who had come hither for the purpose. Had Ryan been sent back to Virginia for trial, he could not have been convicted for want of the Boston witnesses to prove upon him the possession of the stolen goods; it was necessary, therefore, to try him here, that they might be restored to the right owner. Although Ryan could not be tried for any other part of the offence of breaking the store, and stealing in another county or state, but only for the larceny of the goods found on him in Boston, the extent of the punishment for which is three years hard labor. Nor could his former sentence for burglary be noticed in the indictment, because he had been pardoned; otherwise the punishment might have been for many years.

Boston, February 14.

ALARMING COUNTERFEIT BILLS.

On Thursday, we received letters from the cashiers of the banks at Hartford, stating that a person had been taken up there, on suspicion of passing $20 bills of the Gloucester bank, (being Perkins's patent Stereotype plate) as about $2000 were found on him in 20 and 50 dollar bills, but being unable to say they were bad, they enclosed two $20 bills to us.—After examining them ourselves, and by most of the brokers, and several of the clerks in the banks, it was almost an unanimous opinion that they were genuine; but the idea of a person having so large an amount of bills on a bank near 150 miles from where they were issued, induced us to send them to the cashier of the bank, who has returned them to us crossed, as counterfeit. We state all these particulars, to show how well they are done, and how dangerous it will be to do business, if every one are not on their guard of whom they receive bills. The cashier enclosed us a genuine bill which has G. B. in a water mark, and says the signatures in the counterfeits are not well done, and that there is a little difference in the paper—but we are confident these bills would pass among nine tenths of people, without suspicion.

GILBERT & DEAN,
Old State House.

Died,

On Thursday evening last, Mr. Wm STEWART, for many years an inhabitant of this town.

In the death of this amiable gentleman society has lost much—his qualifications were such as make men worthy in their Maker's eye. In him were blended the mildness of private life and the charms of virtuous friendship. Modest and benevolent, he interested all who knew him; and the solicitude of his friends and acquaintances during his illness is the best evidence of their estimation of his worth. His pursuits and ambition were limited. Fame never held its cup of nectar to his lips, but his heart was warm—his charities and his life exhibited proofs that he was virtuous. His illness was long and painful; during which he obeyed the Law, was sure in the faith, and anticipated death with the resignation resulting from the hope of a seat at the right hand of the Majesty of Heaven.

This tribute of respect is paid by friends who knew him well, and who sincerely regret his loss; but his path to the tread—the christian hope wipes away the tear with which sorrow bedews the grave of departed worth.

His friends and acquaintance are requested to attend his funeral, this evening at 3 o'clock, from his lodgings, near Brown's Hotel.

French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS.—With this view I have purchased the FRENCH CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikeland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniencies for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to Act I. Scene I. NIGHT. Curtain rises to slow music. A FOREST. On the right a large Tree, on the left a thick cluster of small Trees.

During the last part of the overture and rising of the curtain, A STORM.—Tekeli is discovered lying on the branch of a large tree, and Wolf (his friend) asleep at the foot of it. Dialogue—Music. A skirmishing party of the Imperialists, which is about the wood for the purpose of cutting off the retreat of Tekeli, enter. Tekeli and Wolf fall on the ground and escape a charge of the enemy. They subsequently hide behind a thicket. The Infantry charge and THE CAVALRY follow—the horses displaying agility by each leaping the bushes. Tekeli and Wolf having escaped, rush forward, kneel and embrace. Music expressive the whole time. Dialogue. Villagers enter—who being made acquainted with the wants of Tekeli, compose a litter ornamented with boughs. Chorus—'Hail the nuptial hour,' and exit.

On the left a Bridge crossing the river Torza; under which is the Water Mill seen at work.—On the right Christini's Apartment. In the back, at the supposed distance of 3 miles, is the FORTRESS OF MONTGATZ, on a rock. In the front two or three barrels. Enter Christini—song, "How sweet are the flowers that grow by yon fountain." Dialogue. Tekeli is borne in on the litter—he makes himself known to the miller, who, although an enemy, shelters him from the pursuit of the soldiery, which are stationed in every apartment to prevent his escape. They are defeated, and Tekeli is preserved in an extraordinary manner. March. The detachment in the mill, with Maurice commanding, march on and range themselves. Count Caraffa enters with his party. The mill detachment presents arms—the count examines the miller, whose answers not being satisfactory, he is dragged before the court.

Act III. A GOTHIC HALL in the Fortress of Montgatz. A table covered with a carpet, on which lies a mantle and helmet. The curtain rises to solemn music. Alexina addresses her soldiers; and in answer to an imperious demand of Count Caraffa, made through his herald Edmond, she strikes her shield, the doors of the Hall fly open, and discover the battlements of the Fortress filled with horse and foot. Alexina then mounts her elegant Arabian charger and adresses them.

Last Scene. The whole extent of the Battlements, the Towers and Walls of Montgatz. In an elevated situation on the tower hangs the standard of the Hungarians. On the distant hills Caraffa's Camp—the Austrian colors flying. A Gate and Port Cullis. March. Enter troops in all directions—GENERAL ENGAGEMENT between the Austrians and Hungarians. During the fight an Hungarian officer, with intrepid courage, mounts the battlements, and his horse, with wonderful sagacity, tears down the Austrian flag. Tekeli is seen on the Ramparts—Caraffa dares him to the fight. TEKELI ENTERS ON HORSEBACK. SINGLE COMBAT between Tekeli and Caraffa, in the course of which Tekeli's Horse is shot under him by Caraffa. He dismounts, and they fight on foot—Caraffa is overthrown. STORMING OF THE FORTRESS. Tekeli and his party prove victorious, and he is restored to his Alexina, amidst the shouts of the victors and the waving of the Hungarian Flags from the towers of the Fortress.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE's MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI BILIOUS PILLS,

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly gratifying to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions	Indigestion
Lowness of spirits	Melancholy
Loss of appetite	Gout in the stomach
Impurity of blood	Pains in the limbs
Hysteric'l affection	Relaxations, etc.
Inward weaknesses and debility

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

☞ At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines, the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.
